Expungement of Quayson's name:

By Daniel Kenu, PARLIAMENT HOUSE

Sharp division in Parliament

PARLIAMENT was sharply divided over the expungement of James Gyakye Quayson's name from the records of the House yesterday as agitated lawmakers from both sides debated the Supreme Court order, leaving the Speaker at the centre.

In a sheer defiance, the MP for Bawku Central, Mahama Ayariga, contended that per the recent ruling of the Supreme Court, it was only the name of the former Member of Parliament (MP) for Assin North which was to be expunged from the records and not all

Opinion

Misapplication of Money Laundering Act by Ghanaian banks

I AM serving public notice to the Chief Justice (CJ) and the Ghana Bar Association (GBA) that, on the basis of facts at my disposal, I have formed the opinion that there is a subterranean, pervasive, and conscious misapplication of the Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2000, (Act 749) by Ghanaian Banks, including the Bank of Ghana (BOG), resulting in seizure of enormous monies remitted to Ghanaians from outside. — Page 11
