

Ongoing WASSCE:

WAEC uncovers massive cheating

- 86 Mobile phones, smartwatches seized
- Proprietors, invigilators cited

By Emmanuel Bonney & Diana Mensah

THE West African Examinations Council (WAEC) has uncovered a grand scheme by some school authorities and candidates to cheat in the ongoing Ghana only version of the West African Senior School

Certificate Examination for School Candidates (WASSCE-SC), leading to some arrests.

During an operation by specially-trained monitoring agents of WAEC,

Continued on Page 05

John Kapi, Head of Public Affairs, West African Examinations Council, addressing the press in Accra. Picture: ELVIS NII NOI DOWUONA

From Nima to London:
Read Mohammed Kudus' first interview

— Pages 8 & 25

Premix automation
will check waste,
abuse — Fishers

— Page 13

Global Perspective

The resurgence of unconstitutional government changes

Page 04

Opinion

Can a diabetic eat eba?

Page 10

News

Uphold peace at all times

- Togbi Kadzahlo urges Anlos at 2023 Hogbetsotso Za launch

Pages 16 & 17

Entertainment

Jude: The man of many colours

Page 20

Regional Spotlight

6 Major projects stall at Gbewaa College of Education

- Management appeals for completion

Pages 12 & 21

Politics

Police and partisan politics:

Let's use lessons from IGP removal plots for reforms

Page 19

Sports

Hughton's challenge to transform Black Stars

Back page

