Flagbearership campaign launch:

I'll scrap ex gratia

— John Mahama

From Alberto Mario Noretti,
SOKODE-LOKOE

FORMER President John Dramani Mahama has promised to scrap the payment of ex gratia for Article 71 office holders if he wins the 2024 presidential election.

He said the necessary constitutional steps to stop the payments would start in 2025 if given the nod to become President again.

"The payment of ex gratia to members of the Executive under Article 71 will be scrapped. The necessary constitutional steps to take on this will start in earnest in 2025. We will also persuade members of the other arms of government to accept same," he said.

Mr Mahama said this when he launched his campaign to become
