

Support 2023 budget to achieve growth

• President rallies Ghanaians at Farmers Day

From Haruna Yussif Wunpini, KOFORIDUA

PRESIDENT Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo is rallying Ghanaians to support the 2023 Budget and Economic Policy of the government to help bring the economy back on track and spur growth.

He said the measures outlined in the budget were an indication that the government was looking to cut down expenditure and mobilise the needed revenue for development.

Addressing a durbar to mark the

President Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo (4th from right) being supported by Dr Owusu Afriyie Akoto (3rd from right), Minister of Food and Agriculture, to present GH¢1 million to Nana Yaw Sarpong Siriboe, the National Best Farmer

Continued on Page 05

Andre Dede Ayew, Black Stars' skipper, taking the penalty in the match against Uruguay yesterday

Black Stars in painful exit

— Back page

Global Perspective

World's longest serving President wins 6th term

Page 04

Big Interview

We need national conversation on economy — Austin Gamey

Pages 8 & 25

Politics

Why are we where we are? What should we do?

Page 18

News

Reduce dependence on donor partners

- SEND Ghana to govt

Page 28

Regional Spotlight

More work for honey bees in Adaklu

- 10,000 Gallons produced monthly

Pages 12 & 21

Entertainment

Ekow Alabi Savage: They call him The Rhythm Driver

Page 20

Sports

Black Stars in painful exit

Back Page

