Antony Matheus dos Santos

MANCHESTER United's new signing, Antony Matheus Dos Santos, can be described a s true definition of rising to fame with a dint of hard work.

Born in the ghettos of Brazil, the winger promised himself to change the status of his family with his skills and today, he is considered the third most expensive player in Manchester United after Paul Pogba and Romelu Lukaku.

This is after weeks of negotiation which saw the club coughing up £81.3 million with additional £4.27 million in add-ons to secure his signature.

At 22, Antony is not only walking into stardom with the biggest club in the world but would be coming as one of the highest paid players of the club which will also ensure his account is credited with £200,000-a-week salary.

He will be coming alongside his stunning Brazilian brunette wife, sweetheart Rosilene Xavier, both of whom have been keeping their love affair low key in recent times and son, Lorenzo, whom he described as his everything.
